

Message from the President.....

Lou Byrd

*Dear Interim HealthCare Associate,
As I approach the three-month mark of being owner of Interim HealthCare of the Eastern Carolinas, Inc., I'd like to pause from my busy schedule to simply say – “ Thank you” !
The acquisition of this fine Company, and the merging of best practices between my other Interim HealthCare franchises in Raleigh, Durham and Asheville, have been no simple feat. But thanks to the hard work and dedication of our management, administrative and Caregiving staff, it has been a smooth transition. Former owner Steve Smith continues in an advisory capacity, and additionally will be focusing his efforts primarily on external affairs in the areas of our State Home Care Association, governmental relations and pursuing new military staffing and home care contracts , to provide even more job opportunities for you.*

Much of my time during these first three months has been to listen and get to know the staff, policy and procedures of the Company. While I do not anticipate radical changes, I will be interjecting some of the successful ideas I have learned in my 30-year+ career at Interim HealthCare. I have just completed a term as president of the Triangle Area chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners, and have learned many successful business ideas from my fellow women business owners that I hope to use.

But my “ take home” point to you today is: please know that I will always remember that our direct patient caregivers are the single-most important asset of this Company. With that, I will conduct myself to that end, always advocating to improve your life to the fullest extent possible that I can.

Thank you for being here – I look forward to a long and lasting relationship!

Sincerely,

Donna “Lou” Byrd, President
