The GUIDE Model: No Cost Dementia Support for Eligible Medicare Beneficiaries

We are here for you.

Caring for someone with dementia can be isolating, confusing, and exhausting—but but you don't have to do it alone.

Dementia In-home Respite Care

If you're supporting a loved one with dementia, you may qualify for nurse-led support and respite care—at no cost for eligible Medicare beneficiaries. *This includes:

-  In-home respite hours
-  24/7 access to your care team
-  Caregiver education
-  Compassionate guidance every step of the way

*Available to those enrolled in Medicare Parts A & B.

Guiding an Improved Dementia Experience (GUIDE)

This is support you deserve—available when you and your loved one need it most.

Interim HealthCare of Annapolis proudly partners with providers of GUIDE services to support the delivery of in-home respite care. Respite care offers you time to rest, recharge, and care for yourself.
